(Notes) 1. The data above are total numbers.

2. The "number of the accused for whom a detention warrant was issued during the year" is the sum of the number of the accused who had already been under detention before being received at the court of first instance and the number of the accused for whom a detention warrant was issued after being received and before the case was finally disposed by the court of first instance.

3. The "number of the accused for whom bail was granted during the year" is the number of the accused for whom bail was granted before the case was finally disposed.

4. The data for 2021 are preliminary figures.
